

WisdomTree Fund Changes: Q&A

1. Which Funds are being closed and liquidated?

Fund Name	Ticker	Exchange
WisdomTree Japan Hedged Capital Goods Fund	DXJC	NYSE Arca
WisdomTree Japan Hedged Health Care Fund	DXJH	NYSE Arca
WisdomTree Japan Hedged Real Estate Fund	DXJR	NYSE Arca
WisdomTree United Kingdom Hedged Equity Fund	DXPS	NASDAQ
WisdomTree Global ex-U.S. Hedged Dividend Fund	DXUS	NYSE Arca
WisdomTree Strong Dollar Emerging Markets Equity Fund	EMSD	Cboe
WisdomTree Global ex-U.S. Hedged Real Estate Fund	HDRW	Cboe
WisdomTree U.S. Export and Multinational Fund	WEXP	NYSE Arca
WisdomTree U.S. Domestic Economy Fund	WUSA	NYSE Arca

2. How and why were the Funds chosen to be closed and liquidated?

WisdomTree periodically reviews its Fund family in an effort to ensure that all of its Funds are useful, compelling and differentiated investment offerings within the current ETF landscape. After carefully evaluating multiple factors, including length of time on the market, asset levels, limited market demand and competitive positioning, WisdomTree determined it would be in the best interest of each Fund and its shareholders to close and liquidate the Funds identified above.

3. Can I sell my shares now?

Yes. Until the date the Funds stop trading you may sell Fund shares as you normally would. In this case, the price you receive will be the market price for such shares and you may pay a brokerage commission in connection with your transaction. If you sell your shares you will be subject to a capital gain or loss equal to the amount you receive for your shares in excess of the adjusted basis in your shares.

4. When will Fund shares stop trading?

Fund shares for DXJC, DXJH, DXJR, DXUS, WEXP and WUSA are currently listed and traded on NYSE Arca. Fund shares for DXPS are currently listed and traded on NASDAQ. Fund shares for EMSD and HDRW are currently listed and traded on Cboe. In order to help the Funds wind down their affairs, Fund shares will stop trading on their respective exchange after the close of trading on Friday, March 16, 2018. After the close of business on March 16, 2018, the Funds will no longer accept creation orders. If you wish to sell your shares prior to the actual liquidation of the Funds you should do so by the close of trading on March 16, 2018. The Funds will not accept orders to purchase additional shares after this date.

5. What happens if I do not sell my shares by March 16, 2018?

If investors do not sell their shares prior to the last day of trading, investors will be automatically redeemed and will receive cash on or about March 23, 2018 equal to the amount of the Net Asset Value (NAV) of their shares. The amount distributed seeks to include any accrued capital gains and dividends, and proceeds will automatically be deposited into the account where shares were held. However, a Fund may or may not, depending upon each Fund's circumstances, pay one or more dividends or other distributions in addition to the liquidation payment. You generally will be subject to a capital gain or loss equal to the amount you receive for your shares in excess of the adjusted basis in your shares. The Funds will not charge shareholders any brokerage or transaction fees in connection with the automatic redemption.

6. How is the cash deposited to my account?

Shareholders will receive their payment in the form of a liquidating distribution that is electronically credited to their brokerage or other applicable financial intermediary account on the payment date.

7. Can I exchange my shares for shares of another Fund to maintain similar exposure?

For those investors who would like to maintain similar exposure to a Fund that is closing, please call 1-866-909-9473 as WisdomTree has a number of potential alternatives.

8. Will the Funds incur significant costs as a result of the closure and liquidation?

While each Fund's NAV will reflect costs incurred in connection with the unwinding of its portfolio investments and the winding down of its operations, these costs are not expected to be significant.

9. Will shareholders and/or advisors need to complete any paperwork in response to the fund closures?

No action is required by you or your financial advisor if you wish to have your shares redeemed automatically and receive cash on or about March 23, 2018. If you wish to sell your shares prior to the liquidation, you should follow the procedures you currently use to sell Fund shares and place your trade prior to the close of trading on March 16, 2018.

10. Will each Fund continue to pursue its investment objective up until their liquidation?

Each Fund anticipates pursuing its objective until approximately March 16, 2018. When each Fund commences liquidation of its portfolio, which is anticipated to occur on or about March 16, 2018, but may occur before March 16, 2018, and at different times for each Fund, the liquidation process will result in each Fund increasing its cash holdings and deviating from its stated investment objectives and strategies. If this does not meet your investment needs, you may wish to sell your Fund shares.

11. Are all nine Funds on the same closing schedule?

Yes. All nine Funds will follow the closing schedule outlined above.

12. Is the sale or redemption associated with a Fund closing treated any differently for tax purposes?

For income tax purposes, the sale or redemption of shares generally is treated in the same manner. Shareholders generally will be subject to a capital gain or loss equal to the amount received upon sale or redemption in excess of their adjusted basis in Fund shares. We recommend that you consult a tax advisor for advice regarding your specific situation.

13. How will the closing of these Funds be communicated to shareholders?

In addition to issuing a press release, WisdomTree has sent a prospectus supplement to all Fund shareholders of record and will post this Investor FAQ and other information on www.wisdomtree.com. A Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC) notification will be sent to brokerage firms as well.
