The value of an investment in ETPs may go down as well as up and past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance. An investment in ETPs is dependent on the performance of the underlying index, less costs, but it is not expected to match that performance precisely. ETPs involve numerous risks including among others, general market risks relating to the relevant underlying index, credit risks on the provider of index swaps utilised in the ETP, exchange rate risks, interest rate risks, inflationary risks, liquidity risks and legal and regulatory risks. An investment in an ETP tracking a daily leveraged or daily short index is intended for financially sophisticated investors only who wish to take a short term view on the underlying index. As a consequence, Boost ETP LLP is not promoting or marketing Boost ETPs to Retail Clients. However, you should consult your financial advisor if you wish to invest in ETPs.
