What Team8 brings

Company building and investing expertise:

A multidisciplinary team of investors, operators, and domain experts brings hands-on experience to identifying opportunities, building and investing in companies, and scaling businesses.

Proprietary research:

In-depth research into the themes driving the future of cybersecurity helps identify emerging challenges, technology shifts, and opportunities for innovation.

Direct enterprise insight:

Team8's CISO Village and repeatable validation process connect research with security buyers' priorities, operational challenges and technology needs.

WisdomTree's partnership with Team8

Our partnership allows us to integrate Team8's specialist industry expertise into the design and ongoing development of our WisdomTree Team8 Cybersecurity UCITS Index. By working with Team8, WisdomTree is able to:

Identify cybersecurity companies with exposure to areas where cybersecurity demand is expected to accelerate, based on research into their products, capabilities and alignment with emerging industry themes.

Build a representative index, covering the cybersecurity landscape using a framework spanning eight distinct technology themes.

Offer an exchange-traded fund (ETF) informed by specialist cybersecurity research and theme insight.

Monitor and rebalance the index as the cybersecurity landscape evolves.
