WisdomTree Emerging Markets SmallCap Dividend Fund (DGS)

Our Philosophy

- ▶ Pricing Errors & Return Premiums Exist
- ▶ Fundamentals Matter
- ▶ The Concept of Relative Value is Important

Why Dividends for Value?

- + Dividends have provided the majority of the stock market's real return over time
- + Dividends can help mitigate downside risk during market bubbles
- + Dividends are an unambiguous objective measure, cannot be restated and can be applied globally

Source: Professor Jeremy Siegel, The Future for Investors (2005), source updated for 2025 data. Uses the S&P 500 universe as of 12/31/25. Average annual total returns, 1957–2025. Each stock in S&P 500 is ranked from highest to lowest by dividend yield on December 31 of every year and placed into “quintiles,” baskets of stocks, with 100 stocks in each basket. The stocks in the quintiles are weighted by their market capitalization. Top and bottom quintiles are shown for simplicity. The dividend yield is defined as each stock's annual dividends per share divided by its stock price as of December 31 of that year. p.a.=per annum. Past performance is not indicative of future results. You cannot invest directly in an index. Index performance does not represent actual fund or portfolio performance. A fund or portfolio may differ significantly from the securities included in the index. Index performance assumes reinvestment of dividends but does not reflect any management fees, transaction costs or other expenses that would be incurred by a portfolio or fund, or brokerage commissions on transactions in fund shares. Such fees, expenses and commissions could reduce returns.

Investment Process: Emerging Markets Small Cap Dividends

The following constraints are applied:

Sectors: 25% weight constraint for all sectors, except for Real Estate, which is constrained at 15% of total weight.

Countries: 25% constraint for all countries, including a 5% constraint to Chinese A-shares. Should the ratio of a security's weight relative to its weight in a market capitalization weighted version of the index reach above 10x or fall below 0.10x, the weight of the company will be reduced or increased to meet the 10x or 0.10x thresholds, respectively.

Composite Risk Score (CRS)

- + The Composite Risk Score uses Quality and Momentum scores to identify the riskiest companies
- + This aims to remove or limit the impact of such companies in indexes

*Quality score is an equal weight of the 8 scores (6 data points (3 and 3) are needed per stocks to be included). Data is normalized with a cross sectorial Z Score in each industry groups. Trends are calculated as a 12 quarters historical Z Score in each industry groups.

The Composite Risk Score: Filtering Out the Riskiest Dividend Payers and Rewarding Higher Quality Companies

- + The Composite Risk Score (CRS) is used to create a list of riskier stocks
- + All stocks (dividend payers or not) are ranked across 6 distinct universes → 3 regions (US, Developed International, and Emerging Markets) separated between large-/mid-cap and small-caps
- + In each universe:
  - + The stocks in the bottom 10% of stocks ranked by CRS are excluded
  - + The stocks in the Top 5% by dividend yield and bottom half by CRS are also excluded
- + CRS is also used to create a list of “Good Stocks”, which is the 2 top deciles
  - + In all strategies (except Quality Dividend Growth), the good stocks are overweighted, the $ dividend stream of those stocks is increased by 50% to increase their weight

There are risks associated with investing, including possible loss of principal. Foreign investing involves special risks, such as risk of loss from currency fluctuation or political or economic uncertainty. Funds focusing on a single sector and/or smaller companies generally experience greater price volatility. Investments in emerging, offshore or frontier markets are generally less liquid and less efficient than investments in developed markets and are subject to additional risks, such as risks of adverse governmental regulation, intervention and political developments. Due to the investment strategy of this Fund, it may make higher capital gain distributions than other ETFs. The securities of small-capitalization companies generally trade in lower volumes and are subject to greater and more unpredictable price changes than larger capitalization stocks or the stock market as a whole. Small-capitalization companies may be particularly sensitive to adverse economic developments as well as changes in interest rates, government regulation, borrowing costs and earnings. Dividends are not guaranteed, and a company currently paying dividends may cease paying dividends at any time. The Fund invests in the securities included in, or representative of, its Index regardless of investment merit, and the Fund does not attempt to outperform its Index. Please read the Fund's prospectus for specific details regarding the Fund's risk profile.
